

Remenham Court 2021

Introducing Remenham Court. An historic private venue on the banks of the River Thames.

A unique riverside venue, offering flexible entertaining space

The Main House

Fully refurbished in 2021, the main house offers a versatile and welcoming space. The house can accommodate a range of options for drinks receptions, intimate dining and relaxed evenings, as well as larger scale events.

The Hall

Set the tone for your event as your guests enter through the entrance hall of Remenham Court. The sweeping staircase with historic portraits of the house and grounds showcases the best of what this unique venue has to offer.

The Orangery

The historic Orangery with breathtaking views across the grounds to the river beyond, offers an ideal location for drinks receptions or smaller scale dinners, seating around 40 guests. The Orangery opens directly onto the terrace so guests can enjoy the evening sunshine or the views from indoors.

Garden & Grounds

The backdrop of the River Thames adds beauty and tranquillity to the gardens and grounds of Remenham Court.

Sunken Lawn

Having enjoyed a drinks reception on the terrace, guests can move on to dine in a bespoke-designed, lined marquee perfectly placed on the Sunken Lawn of the walled garden.

River Views

Ideal for canapé receptions, the raised terrace provides panoramic views of the river. Drinks and food can be served to your guests while they enjoy views across the River Thames to the countryside beyond.

Sweeping lawns and intimate outdoor spaces

The Gatehouse

Separate from the main house, with unique self-contained accommodation, The Gatehouse offers two additional double bedrooms, bathroom, kitchen and private garden surrounded by a stream. The ideal space for Groom & Groom's Men or family requiring their own private space.

Bedrooms

Remenham Court boasts seven bedrooms in the main house, ideal for accommodating the main wedding party or the majority of guests to a more intimate event. The Bridal Suite offers stunning views of the garden and River Thames beyond.
